25th November 2013

Dear parents and caregivers,

Congratulations to 2A, Mrs Adam and Mr Hockey! I hear that you did a wonderful job on Friday with the recycling launch. Bargo Public School is now the Regional Ambassador for Recycling.

Many thanks to all of our parents who have informed me about Kindergarten enrolments for 2014, and continuing and departing students for 2014. Your help is making the job a little easier for me. Thanks!! Remember to complete the Kindergarten enrolment form for students starting school in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018 at the end of this newsletter. Thanks in anticipation.

Finally, mums and dads please check your children’s hair tonight as I have had a few reports of head lice.

Take every opportunity to learn something new.

Anne Bunga
Principal

Photos of the school leadership team and house captains are on display in the windows of the canteen area. UNIFORM SHOP

Last day of trading this year will be: Thursday 5th December 9.00—9.30 am.

We will be closing for the remainder of the year for stocktake.

Special Opening 2014:
Tuesday 28th January 9.30—11.30am.

This is the day before Years 1 to 6 return to school.

St Vincent De Paul Christmas Appeal

Last year we reduced the representative of Vinnie’s to tears by the superb generosity of the Bargo community—the food, the toys, the money from the bucket, meant that many, many families had a far better Christmas than they would have had without our ‘gifts’.

So let’s do it again— the cans and packets of Christmas food & toys can be left in my room and cash donations can be kept until Presentation Day—look for the buckets!

Yours
David Hines
